To Ship-Builders, and others using Copper Fastenings.

The subscriber is now prepared to furnish
E. G. POMEROY'S
PATENT COPPER-COATED IRON
SPIKES, BOLTS, DECK BOLTS
COPPERED SHEET IRON,
With all kinds of FASTENINGS used for Ships, from the only manufacturers in the United States—C. & J. MARSHALL, Newport, Del.—superior in strength, and at about ONE-HALF the cost of Copper Fastenings.

Orders sent to TRAIN & PHIPPS, No. 41 Commercial Street, Boston, or to the subscriber, (who is the only Agent for their sale and manufacture in the New England States,) will meet with prompt attention.

Samples sent to order, with certificates from A. A. HAYES, Assayer to the State of Massachusetts, also of Commissioner on Science and the Arts of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, and of those who have used and are using the Fastening.

[Copy of a Letter.]
BALTIMORE, Jan. 8, 1856.
Messrs. C. & J. Marshall—Gentlemen. At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper-coated spikes, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper.

We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) JOHN D. FARDY & BRO.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

ALL PERSONS who desire to obtain full and reliable information respecting SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES—their price, capabilities advantages, sizes, improvements, method of working, means of procuring them, and all other particulars—can do so by applying at our office,
No. 323 Broadway, New York, by letter or in person, for
I. M. SINGER & CO'S GAZETTE.

This paper is devoted entirely to the Sewing Machine interest. Copies will be supplied gratis to all interested.

The unparalleled success of our Sewing Machines has induced several fraudulent imitations of them. Besides numerous infringements of our patents—in which we own sixteen. Suits for the infringement of our patents have recently been decided in favor in the U.S. Circuit Courts in New York and New Jersey. In these suits the essential principle of Holding or Clamping the Fabric to be Sewed to the Surface of the Machine, by a yielding pressure, which is used in all Sewing Machines—has been fully established. The Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, as we allege each infringe three distinct patents owned by us. We have suits against them in several of the U. S. Courts which will soon be decided. We hereby caution the public not to buy any infringing Machines, as they can be compelled by law to stop using them, and to pay costs and damages.

Agents wanted to make sales of our improved sewing machines. To persons properly qualified for the business, a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is offered.

New and improved machines exchanged on liberal terms for old machines of every kind.

Mr. C. H. KENT:
Dear Sir—I have been troubled for fifteen years with eruptions and boils on my face. Tried various remedies until I was disgusted at the sight of medicine. By your recommendation I was induced to make a trial of the celebrated Allied Ointment. It has more than answered my expectation. My face is now perfectly smooth and free from all eruptions. I am fully convinced of its merits, believing it will do all you claim for it, if used according to the directions.

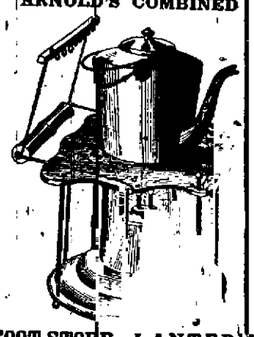
ARNOLD'S COMBINED


FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN, ...AND.... NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public.

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in half an hour one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling. It is heated by an oil, alcohol, or fluid lamp; the flame of which is protected from every external object.

As a LANTERN it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage.

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm, besides giving the light desired, and for cooking in small quantities. For making tea, &c., it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a flat-iron heat in the same length of time.

In fact, the various purposes to which this new apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one. No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say any thing more respecting its adaptation to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can all see at once for themselves.

The Great European Cough Remedy.
Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally. The celebrated
Universal Cough Mixture
IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description, whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing.
PREPARED ONLY BY
REV. WALTER CLARKE,
Sole Proprietor, Cornishville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged; and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat, which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the exciting cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold in trial bottles, 25 cents each; large bottles, each containing the quantity of four small, 75 cents each.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Boothbay, Maine.
BOOTHBAY, 12th, 1853.
To Rev. Walter Clark: Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you at Topsham had the desired effect on my wife. She had been afflicted with a cough for two years—this bottle entirely removed it.

From Rev. Jesse Hoyt, Lewiston Falls.
REV. CLARKE—Every bottle of the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me, is sold—and I have several applications for more. All for whom I have heard from, all have been perfectly satisfied with the medicine. One man, who had a cough of long standing, attended with tightness of the chest and shortness of breath, so that he was laid aside from business, purchased some large bottles, and before he had taken one-third of it, was perfectly cured, and has had no cough since. He says it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly.
JESSE HAYES.

From Mr. Fletcher Clark, agent for North Dixmont, Maine.
DEAR SIR—A number of the most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several who had coughs of a year's standing, and others who have been doctored six months without receiving any benefit, have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs. Hubbard, Thorndike, Me.
FREDERICK I, 1854.
To Rev. Walter Clark: Dear Sir—This certifies that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and soreness in the lungs. I had previously taken several kinds of medicine, and had been under the care of several physicians, without obtaining the least relief, happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. I procured a bottle, which I began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

Southern "Moderation" and "Courtesy."

The apologists of the Sumner outrage, and some also who pretend to condemn it, have a good deal to say about the "insulting language" which Mr S. used towards the South and towards Southern men—wishing thus to insinuate a justification by asserting that Mr. Sumner provoked the outrage, and that the Southerners and their allies were all very moderate gentlemen in debate,—refraining from offensive personalities and sectional imputations.

Now it is asserted by those who have heard the debates, that Butler, Mason, Brooks, Keitt, Douglas and others of the pro-slavery champions have for months been arrogant, supercilious and abusive almost beyond sufferance, in their language towards the North and Northern men, and especially towards Mr Sumner.

The most intolerable thing, indeed, connected with the whole affair, is the fact that northern servile,—both men and presses—who have seen with exultation, for years, the incessant flow of vituperation from the lips of southern men against Mr. Sumner, and who have tortured his long forbearance and truly Senatorial deportment into evidence of moral cowardice—we say it is intolerable that these men, when Mr Sumner has felt called upon once for all to rise in his place, and in the language of deserved severity to settle accounts with his revilers, now lift their voices in righteous indignation at his "offensive personalities." And when a "chivalrous" bully, accompanied and sustained by his friends, attacks Mr. Sumner in the Senate Chamber, takes him at a coward ly advantage, and nearly or quite murders him, these same northern dough-faces whine out, "We don't justify the assault," (Oh no!) "But he provoked it!" "He invited it!" "He was abusive, and might have expected it!" Such condemnation of the outrage, from northern men who have exulted over the abuse which slaveholders have heaped upon Mr. Sumner, is infinitely more mean and contemptible than the cowardly assault itself.

But we were talking of Southern "moderation and courtesy" in debate. It is well known what that is. This very Mr. Keitt, himself who stood by his colleague Brooks and prevented interference while he was assaulting Senator Sumner, gave us a faint specimen of it only a short time since, and as we happen to have his speech before us in the Congressional Globe, (not entirely sifted of its abusive language by himself, in revising it for publication, as is the case with the speeches of Mason, Douglas, Butler and others, who, when they call Senators "liars" &c in debate, do not put the words into their published remarks,) we will give an extract or two (The italics are those of Mr. Keitt himself.)

Mr. Keitt said

Mr. Chairman The Nebraska vendetta is accomplished The weird torchlight, which glared upon the fusion band met here to sap and mine the Constitution, revealed implacable, if discordant, factions. Week after week a fearful spectacle rose up before us The South for two months saw the controlling party in one section of the Confederacy paralyzing the Government in its struggle to obtain the mastery in the popular branch of Congress, in order to devote its powers to her destruction. In that struggle fanaticism has triumphed Its leader, after lying in state for weeks, in sight of the Speaker's desk, has at last been galvanized into the Speaker's chair His cold finger, excited by abolition electricity, has wandered "round the dial plate, and now points to the stroke" of massacre and servile insurrection In charity, let the curtain drop, on this scene in the drama let cloud and darkness descend

But, sir, another actor appears upon the stage While the scene-shifters are arranging for the subsequent incidents, lo! creeping through the interstices, and wriggling forward to the footlights, comes the member from Indiana, [Mr Colfax] With face trained in the mirror of Free Soil morality, he waves Cuba from him with one hand, but with the other slyly clutches after the British possessions in North America. Ay, they would bring African barbarism where civilization is planting her memorials, they would bring sterility, where heaven has scattered tropical fertility and they would do this because there is not there that pneumatic essence in the atmosphere, or that geological property in the dirt, which make free soil

And these are the men whom we of the South are bade to call brethren! With their blood warmed into insolence, with the trumpet of philanthropy in their glozing mouths, and, singing psalms through their noses, they move down upon the South like an army with banners, they come to set their venom to do its work, and seal her overthrow with havoc and conflagration To the Democratic party, I would say You must meet and crush out this aggressive fanaticism Better adventure upon the perils of unknown seas than rot upon dead waters.

* * * * * * * *

In truth, the negro was not regarded, either North or South, as a citizen, and, in 1820, when the North imposed an odious restriction upon the South, and then broke her word, she only used negrophilism to hide the lust of jealousy and domination. * * * I have shown that the North stabbed it to the heart in the very hour of its birth, and that now, wriggling through its corrupt carcase, its fanatical representatives come here, reeking with putrefaction, and cry out against the South, "broken faith!"

* * * * * * *

Abolitionism, through an undeviating unity and identity of purpose, has aggregated to itself, at present, a dominating strength in the free States. Born amid jeers, contempt, and scorn, nursed in the haunts of obscurity, and fattened upon the offal of the shambles, and the garbage of the gutter, it has waxed corpulent and audacious. * * * Yesterday it was a toad in the cellar—to day it is a lizard in the garret.

[We give also a polite remark or two of Senator Mason's.]

"The Senator from Massachusetts is utterly incapable of knowing what truth is—utterly incapable of conceiving the perceptions of an honorable mind, when directed in the investigation of truth. The necessity of political position alone brings me into relations with man upon this floor who elsewhere I cannot acknowledge as possessing manhood in any form."

The Effect of the Kansas News—The Doings of Slavery.

WASHINGTON, May 25.

Telegraphic despatches were received in the city last evening, stating that the free settlers of Kansas had been attacked and some of them murdered by the Border Ruffians and Thugs of Missouri, let loose by the United States Marshal, and that the beautiful city of Lawrence, the city of freemen, has been invaded and partly if not wholly sacked and destroyed. This news, though it is only reported by telegraph, is generally believed—a few only affecting to disbelieve it—as the reports for several days past have pointed inevitably to such a result This announcement, following so closely as it does upon the brutal attack on Senator Sumner, has produced a profound feeling here and the intensest excitement. Last night, to a late hour, Northern men were to be seen, at the hotels and places of public resort, anxiously inquiring the news from Kansas, while here and there squads were collected, engaged in the most earnest and exciting conversation.

A more earnest and determined set of men was never collected in this country, than the opponents of slavery extension in the 34th Congress. Border Ruffianism, they are determined to resist to the bitter end, at the risk of life though it be Many Northern members, particularly from the West, do not consider their lives safe, since ruffianism has usurped the place of law, and accordingly go armed. These chivalric bullies, whose only argument lies in the bludgeon, the bowie-knife and the revolver, may therefore learn ere long, that there are blows to receive as well as blows to give.

The cause of all the present excitement in the country, and also of the violence and brutality of Southern men, is distinctly traceable to the institution of American Slavery, and the wicked determination on the part of its advocates and defenders to extend it over the free territory of Kansas. For slavery, a sacred compact of over thirty years standing is repealed, for slavery the whiskey drinking ruffians of Missouri march into the territory of Kansas, seize the ballot boxes, drive from the voting places the actual settlers, murdering those that resist, and elect a legislature to enact laws, worthy only the reign of a Caligula or a Nero, for slavery, peaceable citizens are seized, tarred and feathered, ridden on rails and thrown into the turbid waters of the Missouri, because they will not admit it to be a divine institution, for slavery clergymen are mobbed and printing presses destroyed, for slavery, murderous assaults are made on Senators who plead for the principles of the Declaration of Independence, their blood reddening the floor of the Senate-chamber, for slavery, Lawrence is attacked, its citizens butchered and its buildings sacked and burned. All this, aye, volumes more, for an institution cursed in the sight of God and man, And yet we have apologists for the whole thing—and yet men, I suppose they must be called men—

"Aye, in the catalogue ye go for men,
As hounds and grey hounds, mongrels, spaniels, curs,
* * * * * and demi-wolves, are called
All by the name of dogs."

ESCAPE. Miss Ann B. Kilgon, a young lady who is from Mercer, Maine, now at Medfield, Mass., on a visit, left the house of her friends one night about 12 o'clock in a state of somnambulism, and walked off a high embankment into a pond near by Her shrieks brought to her assistance a young man, who plunged into the water and rescued her from drowning.

A card from Sylvanus Cobb Jr, the writer of some of the best newspaper stories afloat, will be found in our advertising columns We know nothing of the matter, of which he complains, but would enforce the principle of giving just credit to all our literary men for the products of their brains

There was a considerable fall of snow at Cazenovia, New York on the 26th of May—with the temperature below the freezing point.

We are indebted to Mr. S F. Wetmore for Boston evening papers, in advance of the mail.

FURTHER ACCOUNTS OF THE ATTACK UPON LAWRENCE—DWELLINGS PLUNDERED—REPORTS OF FURTHER DISTURBANCES—SHERIFF JONES TO ATTACK TOPEKA. St. Louis, May 27.—The Republican and Democrat both have letters from Kansas to-day, relative to the attack on Lawrence. The Democrat correspondent says that stores and dwelling houses were indiscriminately broken open and robbed One man, Mr. Johnson, had $2000 worth of drafts and land warrants stolen from him.

The house and library of Mr. Brown, editor of the Herald of Freedom, was fired twice, but was extinguished by the citizens

The Republican learns, through Col. Brewerton, that on the 23d, 200 free State men had collected at Lawrence

The garrison at Franklin was probably attacked by the Free State men on the night of the 22d

It was understood that Gov. Shannon would order 100 U S troops to be stationed at Oswatomie, 100 at Lawrence, and 100 at Topeka.

A passenger on the steamer Morning Star, informs the Democrat, that Sheriff Jones intended to proceed immediately to Topeka, with the intention of destroying that town.

CHALLENGE OF SENATOR WILSON, BY BROOKS —RUMORED THREATS OF SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN. New York, May 28 —Col. Brooks sent a challenge to Senator Wilson this evening, by Gen. Lane, of Oregon.

The moment Senator Butler heard of the Brooks and Sumner affair, he started for Washington. He will answer Sumner when the latter is in his seat.

(Express Correspondence) All sorts of alarming rumors are current, and one is that if Brooks is expelled, a majority of Southern Congressmen will retire from the Capitol.

The Sentinel, which represents the Buchanan interest here, has been editorially silent all along upon the Massachusetts Senator.

THE VIRGINIA SOUTH SIDE DEMOCRAT says of the assault on Mr. Sumner:

"The telegraph has recently announced no information more grateful to our feelings than the classical caning which this outrageous abolitionist received on Thursday, at the hands of the chivalrous Brooks of South Carolina."

Singular Casualty.

[illegible] long since, Capt. Milton Tufts of Sul[illegible] [illegible] in a keg in his store, about two pounds of gun-powder, and wishing to use the keg, poured the contents into a paper, which he carried to the house, and gave it to his wife for safe keeping.

[illegible] Tufts, being busily engaged in her domestic affairs, put the powder in the oven of a stove in an unoccupied room, with the intention of taking it out when at leisure.

Not long after this, while Capt T was sawing in a lath-mill—one of his hands coming in contact with the saw was cut nearly off He was carried home completely exhausted from loss of blood His physician and friends had nearly despaired of his life, as every effort to stop the blood had proved unavailing.

In the mean time, a fire was kindled in the stove, which contained the powder, in order to warm the room for the reception of Capt T.

Immediately after kindling the fire, his friends proceeded to carry him into the room, and had just reached the door, when the powder exploded—breaking the clock, stove, window glass &c, into atoms and starting from its place, one end of the house.

But the most curious part of the story is, Capt. T. received a shock, which immediately stopped the blood, thereby saying his life.

It is the opinion of his physician, that had he bled another ounce, it must have proved fatal.—Machias Union.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.—Both Mr Wade and Mr. Wilson denounced the outrage on Mr. Sumner to-day, in unmistakeable language. They had to sit under a cloud of intimidations, both before and afterward, of personal outrage and violence. The threats were so distinct that Gen. Wilson was escorted to the cars this afternoon by a body of armed friends. He has gone to Trenton to speak.

Rufus Choate is here. His Northern blood is boiling. He called on Mr. Sumner to-day

New York, May 28 A private letter to the Daily Times confirms the story that Brooks of S. Carolina had threatened to assault Mr Chaffee, a Representative from Massachusetts. The letter says "On Friday evening Brooks approached Mr Chaffee, at Willard's Hotel, and threatened to whip him, on suspicion of his having denounced his conduct,—that he said he wanted to whip a few more of the Massachusetts men, and that Mr Chaffee replied, 'If that is your purpose you may as well begin on me, as it is no matter whether I said anything of it or not.' To which Brooks is reported to have answered, 'No, d—n you, you can go acquit.'"

The wagon was smashed, and the horses severely injured—one probably, fatally We are indebted to Winslow and Co's Express agent on the road, for the particulars.

ACCIDENT FROM BURNING FLUID.—A correspondent writing from Milo, informs us that a son of Mr. Franklin Mayo, of that town on the evening of the 11th inst, upset a lighted fluid lamp, which breaking, the fluid spread over the room and filled it with blaze and smoke The lad's clothing caught fire, and his hands were severely burned, before the flames could be extinguished.—Maine Farmer

WHAT [illegible] BE DONE WITH BROOKS?—The House Committee have power to report either in favor of the expulsion of Mr Brooks, or of putting him in the custody of the Sergeant-at Arms for the remainder of the session The former, however, requires a two-third vote of the House, while the latter, it is said, can be done by a majority.

A good anecdote is told of Ali Pacha, the Sultan's grand vizier, now in Paris A few evenings since a lady, to whom this gentleman was introduced at a soiree, hazarded the naive question, "Is the Sultan married?" "A great deal madam," was the Turk's reply

A Card from Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.

Reputation is as dear to man or woman as life itself He who consumes the "midnight oil," and racks his brain in the endeavor to entertain the public, and, at the same time, to earn his bread, with his pen depends more perhaps upon his reputation than any other member of the community Reputation is the author's CAPITAL—his "STOCK IN TRADE"—his ALL, and he who does aught to lessen it is as guilty of a great wrong as if he were to obtain possession in some surreptitious way of a part of his income—the author's reputation being his only method of obtaining a livelihood

An attempt has recently been made to deprive the undersigned of a portion of his reputation — Had this attempt been the offspring of a sudden passion—the mere child of a temporary excitement, such as

"Our nature's frailty might excuse,"

I would have remained silent, and spared the public the relation of my grievances, but when a scheme is deliberately and calmly concocted to wound my feelings, injure my reputation as a writer by building up another name at the expense of my pen, it is too much for any one to bear, without an attempt, at least, to place the matter right before the public

It is well known that for some considerable time past I have been the principal novellette and story writer employed on the Flag of our Union and Ballou's Pictorial, two Boston publications Some six weeks or two months ago, Mr BONNER, the proprietor of the New York Ledger, made me a very liberal offer to write exclusively for his paper I was pleased with the offer, and I accepted it — This has evidently exasperated Mr Ballou, the proprietor of the Flag and Pictorial, as the last novellette that I gave him—and the last one he will ever get from me—entitled THE TEXAN CRUISER, he has published in one of his papers as written by T Burlingame Ross, U S N Now I ask the public, is this fair?—is it honorable? Mr Ballou's object in putting the name T Burlingame Ross, U. S. N., to my Story is undoubtedly to build up a reputation for that name on the merits of this Story. This is rendered evident by the fact that he has published one or two short stories under that signature which I did not write — Again, I ask the public is this right?—is it honorable—is it fair, to either the readers of those papers or myself? Not satisfied with having published my Stories for the past year and a half under the various nome de plume of AUSTIN C BURDICK, AMOS WINSDOW, JR, CHARLES CASTLETON, ARTHUR REMINGTON, WILLIAM MELVILLE, and HORACE B. STANIFORD—names which have often appeared in his papers, and every line under which I have written, besides writing a vast amount of matter which he has published under my own name, he now takes another name to place over my last Story, which, is as much as to say to that portion of his readers, who know I have left him, "Here is a new contributor, who writes almost as well as Cobb," and the reader, not knowing the deception, will, of course, come to that conclusion Whatever may be my reputation as an author, it is at least all to me, for by it, and by it alone, do I support my family Mr Ballou has advertised this story of mine, THE TEXAN CRUISER, not only in his own paper, but in many other papers, as "the best sea tale ever printed in newspaper form," Now, with regard to that statement, the story must stand on its own merits, as I am willing that all matter should that emanates from my pen, yet it strikes me that if it is such a very good story, Mr Ballou ought certainly to have given me the credit of it, still, if it were competent for an author to judge of his own matter, I would certainly say that THE TEXAN CRUISER, although a very good story, is far from being equal to the one I wrote immediately after it, entitled THE STORM SECRET, the publication of which will be commenced in the New York Ledger for the week ending June 7th. Mr Ballou has probably been led to the extraordinary course that he has pursued, because I withdrew my name from his publications, and entered into an arrangement with Mr BONNER to write solely for the New York Ledger [Hereafter all the Stories that I write will be found original only in the LEDGER,] but surely Mr Ballou has no just cause for offence at this I write to support my family, and as Mr Bonner was by far the most liberal publisher to me, I will write for him

But I have already occupied too much space with this personal explanation still I feel that I should have been acting unjustly to myself, my family, and the public, had I remained silent under such strong provocation

NEW YORK, May 29, 1856

The correspondent of the Tribune writing from Leavenworth, May 22d, gives the following particulars of the attack on Lawrence

Marshal Donaldson whose United States posse had been gradually narrowing the circle around Lawrence made a nocturnal descent upon it about 3 o'clock yesterday morning They took possession of the town without the slight est resistance and arrested those they wanted Distlers and Smith being among the number taken.

The Marshal after prolonging the search and taking all the arms they could find, went through a mock process of disbanding them when they were immediately led on by Sheriff Jones, who has not been half so severely injured as was supposed, and the assassination story about whom, has doubtless been a trick Four pieces of artillery were planted immediately in front of the great hotel, and they commenced to batter it down Little progress was made with the artillery as the walls were thick One corner was injured, but when they saw that the work was too slow, a keg of powder was placed in the cellar and the last effort made to blow it up. This was only partially successful, but the flames were soon bursting from it in all directions

Both of the newspaper offices were then fired. The posse in the meantime searched every quarter for liquor, and long before evening, a great many of them were disgustingly drunk, and running about the streets talking about killing abolitionists Several men are reported killed, but the loss of life and other outrages perpetrated on the helpless women and children will never be known

Comparatively few men were in Lawrence when the attack was made, when it was resolved that the United States authorities should not in any shape be resisted, no matter how lawless and violent, the defenders left the city one by one, well knowing that the presence of a few men would only expose them to certain destruction, and that an attack on them might make an apology for destroying the town.

CHICAGO May 29

Our dates are from Leavenworth to Sat urday evening Governor Shannon had called out the troops and stationed them at different points The Missourians were returning home After the burning of the Hotel and the Herald of Freedom office, Gov. Robinson's house was fired, but the fire was extinguished before the house was destroyed Sheriff Jones then dismissed his posse, when they immediately rushed into the stores and dwellings in the place, removing everything valuable and destroying everything not movable The Post Office was broken open, and the letters seized All the houses of Free State men were pillaged, except the Cincinnati Hotel Buford, Stringfellow and Atchison were conspicuous during the day Gov Shannon was absent The posse of Jones left the city at sunset, he informing them that he should need their services next day

Congressional.

WASHINGTON May 29

SENATE.—A message was received from the President of the United States, informing Congress, that he has ceased to hold intercourse with the Minister of the British Government at Washington and deems it proper to lay before them the consideration of public duty which have led to the adoption of a measure of so much importance. Among the documents transmitted by the President is a despatch from Marcy to Mr Dallas dated May 27th, in which it is stated that the President had dared fully considered the note of Lord Clarendon, to Mr. Dallas, April 30 h relative to the enlistment question and has directed to this to present his views therefor for the purpose of having them communicated to the British Government The President is much gratified by the conciliatory spirit of that note and by the desire expressed by Lord Clarendon to add just existing difficulties, and preserve and strengthen the friendly relations between the two Governments.

The disclaimer of any intention to violate the laws of the U S, and the regret that contrary to the intention and direction of the British Government, there had been such infringements, are satisfactory to the President and the main complaint, so far as respects her Majesty's Government, is thus removed—but the President extremely regrets that he can not concur with Lord Clarendon in the opinion that, Mr Crampton, and the Consuls at New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati, are not implicated in those proceedings Regarding those who have no connection with the government he has nothing to ask of her Majesty's government, but in the cases of the individuals mentioned he deems it proper that their relations with this government should cease In taking this step, however, he does not intend to cause any interruption of the diplomatic relations between the United States and Great Britain, but on the contrary is desirous of keeping the two countries upon a friendly footing Mr Crampton's withdrawal was asked expressly on the ground that his connection with the enlistment had rendered him an unacceptable representative of her Britanic Majesty near the government, and for the same reason the withdrawal of the Consuls named was likewise requested These officers are all as this government still believes, implicated in the violation of the laws of the United States, contrary to the reiterated instructions of their own government This complicity did not rest solely on the testimony of Strobel and Hertz but on original papers from Mr Crampton and others

The despatch then proceeds to detail at length the evidence against the dismissed minister and consuls.

Mr. Mason spoke in complimentary terms of the ability with which the question had been discussed by Mr Marcy

Mr. Cass thought that no pretext for war could arise out of the dismissal of Mr Crampton, unless England was determined to go to war

Mr. Toombs thought if this Government was satisfied with the explanation of Lord Clarendon, Mr. Crampton should not have been dismissed.

Mr Cass replied that this Government had not expressed itself satisfied with Mr Crampton's conduct, but with the assurance of the British Government that they had intended no violation of our laws, but it has now turned out that Mr Crampton had acted in violation of the intentions and directions of his own Government.

Mr. Toombs did not believe England or her officers had violated our laws at all While the matter was pending he did not choose to argue the question against our own Government, but he would now say he disapproved the conclusion which this Government had placed upon our neutrality laws.

Mr. Butler thought it would have been better to have dismissed Mr Crampton as soon as his complicity in the matter was discovered.

Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.—A message was received from the President notifying Congress of the dismissal of Mr. Crampton, and transmitting documents, being the same that were sent to the Senate. Referred to the Committee on Foreign affairs.

Mr. Grow, representing the majority of the Committee on Territories, made a report proposing to admit Kansas into the Union with the Topeka Constitution. Consideration was postponed till the 17th June.

Several private bills were passed. Adjourned till Monday.

From Kansas.

NEW YORK, May 29, 1856.

The correspondent of the Tribune writing from Leavenworth, May 22d, gives the following particulars of the attack on Lawrence.

Marshal Donaldson whose United States posse had been gradually narrowing the circle around Lawrence made a nocturnal descent upon it about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. They took possession of the town without the slightest resistance and arrested those they wanted, Deitzler and Smith being among the number taken.

The Marshal after prolonging the search and taking all the arms they could find, went through a mock process of disbanding them, when they were immediately led on by Sheriff Jones, who has not been half so severely injured as was supposed, and the assassination about whom has doubtless been a trick. Four pieces of artillery were planted immediately in front of the great hotel, and they commenced to batter it down. Little progress was made with the artillery as the walls were thick. One corner was injured, but when they saw the work was too slow, a keg of powder was placed in the cellar and the attempt made to blow it up. This was only partially successful, but the flames were soon bursting from it in all directions.

Both of the newspaper offices were then fired. The posse in the meantime, searched every quarter for liquor, and long before evening a great many of them were disgustingly drunk, and running about the streets talking about killing abolitionists. Several men are reported killed, but the loss of life and other outrages perpetrated on the helpless women and children will never be known.

Comparatively few men were in Lawrence when the attack was made, when it was resolved that the United States authorities should not in any shape be resisted, no matter how lawless and violent, the defenders left the city one by one, well knowing that the presence of a few men would only expose them to certain destruction, and that an attack on them might make an apology for destroying the town.

CHICAGO, May 29.

Our dates are from Leavenworth to Saturday evening. Governor Shannon had called out the troops and stationed them at different points. The Missourians were returning home. After the burning of the Hotel and the Herald of Freedom office, Gov. Robinson's house was fired, but the fire was extinguished before the house was destroyed. Sheriff Jones then dismissed his posse, when they immediately rushed into the stores and dwellings in the place, removing everything valuable and destroying everything not movable. The Post Office was broken open, and the letters seized. All the houses of Free State men were pillaged, except the Cincinnati Hotel. Bufford, Stringfellow and Atchison were conspicuous during the day. Gov. Shannon was absent. The posse of Jones left the city at sunset, he informing them that he should need their services next day.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

SENATE.—A message was received from the President of the United States, informing Congress, that he has ceased to hold intercourse with the Minister of the British Government at Washington and deems it proper to lay before them the consideration of public duty which have led to the adoption of a measure of so much importance. Among the documents transmitted by the President, is a despatch from Marcy to Mr. Dallas, dated May 27th, in which it is stated that the President has carefully considered the note of Lord Clarendon, to Mr Dallas, April 30th, relative to the enlistment question and has directed to him to present his views thereon for the purpose of having them communicated to the British Government. The President is much gratified by the conciliatory spirit of that note and by the desire expressed by Lord Clarendon to adjust existing difficulties, and preserve and strengthen the friendly relations between the two Governments.

The disclaimer of any intention to violate the laws of the U. S., and the regret that contrary to the intention and direction of the British Government, there had been such infringements, are satisfactory to the President, and the main complaint, so far as respects her Majesty's Government, is thus removed—but the President extremely regrets that he cannot concur with Lord Clarendon in the opinion that Mr. Crampton, and the Consuls at New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati, are not implicated in those proceedings. Regarding those who have no connection with the government he has nothing to ask of her Majesty's government, but in the cases of the individuals mentioned he deems it proper that their relations with this government should cease. In taking this step, however, he does not intend to cause any interruption of the diplomatic relations between the United States and Great Britain, but on the contrary is desirous of keeping the two countries upon a friendly footing. Mr. Crampton's withdrawal was asked expressly on the ground that his connection with the enlistment had rendered him an unacceptable representative of her Britanic Majesty near the government, and for the same reason the withdrawal of the Consuls named was likewise requested. These officers are all, as this government still believes, implicated in the violation of the laws of the United States, contrary to the reiterated instructions of their own government. This complicity did not rest solely on the testimony of Strobel and Hertz, but on original letters from Mr. Crampton and others.

The despatch then proceeds to detail at length the evidence against the dismissed minister and consuls.

Mr. Mason spoke in complimentary terms of the ability with which the question had been discussed by Mr. Marcy.

Mr. Cass thought that no pretext for war could arise out of the dismissal of Mr. Crampton unless England was determined to go to war.

Mr. Toombs thought if this Government was satisfied with the explanation of Lord Clarendon, Mr. Crampton should not have been dismissed.

Mr. Cass replied that this Government had not expressed itself satisfied with Mr. Crampton's conduct, but with the assurance of the British Government that they had intended no violation of our laws; but it has now turned out that Mr. Crampton had acted in violation of the intentions and directions of his own Government.

Mr. Toombs did not believe England or her officers had violated our laws at all. While the matter was pending he did not choose to argue the question against our own Government, but he would now say he disapproved the construction which this Government had placed upon our neutrality laws.

Mr. Butler thought it would have been better to have dismissed Mr. Crampton as soon as his complicity in the matter was discovered.

Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.—A message was received from the President notifying Congress of the dismissal of Mr. Crampton, and transmitting documents, being the same that were sent to the Senate.—Referred to the Committee on Foreign affairs.

Mr. Grow, representing the majority of the Committee on Territories, made a report proposing to admit Kansas into the Union with the Topeka Constitution. Consideration was postponed till the 17th June.

Several private bills were passed. Adjourned till Monday.

Cheap & Convenient Building.

Door, Sash and Blind Factory.

A DUNBAR

HAS been very successful in completing several contracts for Door Frames Doors, Window Frames and Sashes and Blinds, for good dwelling houses and other buildings to be erected in this city the coming season. He has excellent workmen in his employ, and has superior stock, so that he is now able to supply to those about to build the best articles of Door Frames, Window Frames, Sashes, and Blinds, made to any dimensions and of superior quality either for a whole building or for a less quantity. The trouble and expense of building is very much lessened by having these articles made separately, so that the carpenters have only to put them in their place in the structure.

This business has now become so well systemized that only a small margin is left in knowing beforehand the cost of a dwelling house, while the work is of a uniform excellent quality

Any one interested can examine specimens of the work at the factory, near the Rose Place, or at the store of M S Jackson, on Exchange st, and at the that place any article may be obtained or large quantities ordered.

Mr Dunbar is also prepared to furnish Window Blinds ready painted, and will hang them at the shortest notice.

By long experience, and by determined perseverance, the subscriber is now enabled to suit his customers, both in quality and price, and so well organized is the business that no man should now think of building in the old and slow and imperfect methods

Truth must and will prevail

This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the patient to a perfect state of Health and Purity—And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a Cure and Preventive of any of the above ailments

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

—FOR—

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from Excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed, whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Bucha, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the model of preparation which each individual may adopt

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence are most frequently improperly made and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Bucha, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition The experiments have resulted most favorably and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made Two table spoonfulls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla or decoction, as usually made

Securing Patents for Inventions

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U S PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St, BOSTON

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS—The subscriber, (late Agent of the U S Patent Office under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of the duty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection

This Agency is not only the largest in New England but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents or ascertaining the patentability of invention unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents

Caveats Specifications, Assignments and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procuring of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions and infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors

Copies of the claims of any patent furnished for one dollar Assignments recorded at Washington Patents secured in Great Britain France and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest respectability

R H EDDY Solicitor of Patents

TESTIMONIALS

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents R H EDDY, Esq of Boston did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office as he; and there were none who conducted it with more skill fidelity and success I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most useful Patent Solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office,

EDMUND BURKE

Late Commissioner of Patents

[From the present Commissioner.]

"AUGUST 17, 1855—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents R H Eddy, Esq of Boston has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor He is thoroughly acquainted with the law and the rules of practice of the office.
